BUKOWINA TATRZANSKA POLAND

Bukowina Tatrzańska is a charming, tourist village, situated in one of the most beautiful regions in Poland - Tatra Mountains. Its advantage is the great localization - close to the High Tatras, so it is a great point for all the explorers. Bukowina lies at an altitude of 800 to 1000 meters above sea level, so it is one of the highest situated villages in Poland. There are several viewpoints, offering an unforgettable view of the beautiful panorama of the Tatra Mountains.

Bukowina Tatrzańska combines things that seem to be extremely different – on the one hand, the advantages of a tourist resort, on the other, however, a small highland village, unspoiled by civilization. It offers a lot of bars and restaurants, walking routes, ski runs and thermal baths.

It is also a great place to discover tradition and unique culture of the Tatra Mountains region. Close to Zakopane – the capital of the Tatra Mountains, it gives the possibility to explore the Polish nature, culture and get to know a lot of people from different places.
